

Scholarships for Female Students

AAAA Foundations, Inc.

Website: <http://www.aaa.org>
Address: 405 Lexington Avenue
New York, NY 10174
Phone: (212) 682-2500

The AAAA Foundation awards scholarships to people of color and women for educational learning focused on media, art, and advertising careers. The scholarship foundation has a national focus, based on assisting diverse women obtain higher education in related fields.

Association for Women in Science

Website: <http://www.awis.org>
Address: 1200 New York Avenue NW, Suite 650
Washington, DC 20005
Phone: (202) 326-8940

Each year, the Association for Women In Science Educational Foundation offers college scholarships for high school seniors in the amount of $1,000. A new program, the Kirsten R. Lorentzen Award, is for college sophomores or juniors studying physics or geoscience.

Intel Corporation

Website: <http://www.intel.com/jobs/Students/Scholars/programs.htm>

Intel awards renewable scholarships for women and underrepresented minority students at a number of Intel site universities in the United States. Scholars are selected as incoming first-years from in-state high schools, and the award is renewable annually for up to four years.

Microsoft Corporation

Website: http://www.microsoft.com/college/ss_overview.msp

Microsoft is committed to building the pipeline of future computer scientists. Microsoft scholarships are designed to encourage students to pursue studies in computer science and related technical disciplines. They offer four types of technical scholarships to current undergraduate students: General Scholarship, Women's Scholarship, Underrepresented Minority Scholarship, and Scholarships for Students with Disabilities.

The Rose Foundation

Website: <http://www.rosefund.org>
Address: 175 Federal Street, Suite 455
Boston, MA 02110
Telephone: (617) 482-5400

The Rose Foundation provides scholarships to women who have survived violent crimes and now serve as role models to other women. The Rose Foundation strives to assist women escape violence, while also helping women who are still involved in violent crimes by using their scholarship recipients as mentors.

Sallie Mae Fund

Website: <http://www.thesalliemafund.org>

The Sallie Mae Fund, a charitable organization sponsored by Sallie Mae, achieves its mission—to increase access to higher education for America's students—by supporting programs and initiatives that help open doors to higher education.

The Society of Women Engineers

Website: <http://www.swe.org/scholarships>
Address: 230 East Ohio Street, Suite 400
Chicago, IL 60611
Telephone: (312) 596- 5223

The Society of Women Engineers Scholarship Program provides financial assistance to women admitted to accredited baccalaureate programs, in preparation for careers in engineering, engineering technology and computer science. In fiscal year 2003, the Society of Women Engineers disbursed more than 130 new and renewed scholarships valued at more than $280,000.

Sumasil Foundation

Address: P.O. Box 758
Stillwater, MN 55082
Telephone: (952) 475-0910

The Sumasil Foundation has an international focus and is based on assisting women obtain higher education in order to expand their independence and foster self-growth. The Foundation provides scholarships to women around the world to attend college and universities that will better improve their lives and career choices.

U.S. Department of Education's Federal Student Aid

Website: <http://studentaid.ed.gov>
http://www.studentaid.ed.gov/students/publications/student_guide/2003_2004/english/types.htm
(Federal Aid Information)

The U.S. Department of Education's Federal Student Aid program is the largest source of student aid in America, providing nearly 70 percent of all student financial aid. FSA offers financial help to students enrolled in eligible programs at participating schools to cover school (a four-year or two-year public or private educational institution, a career school or trade school) expenses, including tuition and fees, room and board, books and supplies, and transportation. FSA helps to make education beyond high school financially possible.

Women in Defense

Website: <http://wid.ndia.org/horizon/scholar.htm>
Address: HORIZONS Foundation
National Defense Industrial Association
2111 Wilson Boulevard, Suite 400
Arlington, VA 22201
Telephone: (703) 247-2552

Women In Defense, A National Security Organization, established the HORIZONS Foundation to encourage women to pursue careers related to the national security and defense interests of the United States and to provide development opportunities to women already working in national security and defense fields. The scholarship program is intended to provide financial assistance to further educational objectives of women who are U.S. citizens either employed or planning careers in defense or national security areas.

Women in Engineering Programs and Advocates Network

Website: <http://www.wepan.org/scholarship.html>

This database provides contact information for organizations that provide scholarships and fellowships for women in engineering and science.

Women's Sports Foundation

Website: <http://www.womenssportsfoundation.org>

In 2003, the Women's Sports Foundation awarded more than $550,000 in grant and scholarships to 213 organizations and individuals across 45 states and U.S. military bases abroad. The grant programs provide girls and women with educational materials and scholarships, research on issues related to women in sports, leadership development and also opportunities to participate in sports and fitness.

This document is property of Women In Government. Written permission from the author is needed to reproduce the document in any form. Updated as of July 2006