We are actively recruiting State Directors in Alaska, California, Colorado, Delaware, Illinois, Maryland, Missouri, New York, North Carolina, Oregon, South Dakota, Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming

2019-2020 State Director Nomination Form

State Directors are Women In Government's go-to ambassadors in the states, and we rely on you as our legislative leaders, along with our Board of Directors, to keep us informed about pressing policy issues in your state and to ensure that we are meeting your needs.

Women In Government is asking for female state legislators to self-nominate or nominate a new female state legislator to serve in a leadership position as a Women In Government State Director. If you have previously served in this role, we welcome you to apply to serve again as well.

All final nomination confirmations will be approved by the Women In Government Board of Directors. Please submit your nomination form to Laura Blake, Outreach & Development Manager, via email (lblake@womeningovernment.org) or in person.

As a non-partisan organization, Women In Government aims to have party parity in all leadership positions, with up to 4 State Directors in each state from both houses with all parties represented. Women In Government is committed to party parity and diversity, equity, and inclusion in all forms.

State Director Responsibilities:

- When possible, attend Women In Government national conferences
- Provide input for the topical agendas for Women In Government for the following calendar year (2020)
- Assist in the dissemination of Women In Government information to fellow legislators, especially to newly elected or appointed legislators
- Actively participate in fundraising efforts in her State
- Actively assist in identifying policy areas of interest in her State

State Director Benefits:

- Opportunity to register first for WIG conferences by receiving advance registration links
- Opportunity to access new WIG policy materials first
- Opportunity to be featured in the WIG monthly newsletter
