Connecting State and Federal Government - WIG Letter to U.S. Senate Special Committee on Aging

Women In Government submitted comments to the U. S. Senate Special Committee on Aging for inclusion in their annual report to Congress about the needs of older Americans to bring attention to state initiatives to improve Bone Health.

Included in the comments is Women In Government's Bone Health Toolkit, which brings awareness to bone health and how governments may work to both prevent fractures, falls and their consequences.

Are you going to the National Governors Association Summer Meeting in Salt Lake City? Come say hello!
