Do you know someone who deserves the Outstanding Woman State Legislator Supporting the Arts Annual Award?

Every year, The Kennedy Center and the Women in Government Foundation recognize a Woman State Legislator for outstanding support of the arts in her state. The individual will be recognized and presented the plaque at our National Legislative Conference in Washington, D.C. (6/18 - 6/20).
Congratulations to Senator Matsumoto (HI) on her new leadership role as Treasurer!

Representative Matsumoto is has been a dedicated member of our Board of Directors since 2016. She served as Secretary in 2019 and we are so grateful for her continued efforts as she becomes Treasurer!

WIG in Richmond, VA for the Annual Fuzzy Slippers Reception

On February 25, WIG attended and was a sponsor of the Annual Fuzzy Slippers Reception to support the amazing and historic group of women leaders in Virginia!

This annual event hosted by [Hunton Andrews Kurth LLP](https://www.hunton Andrewskurth.com), provides an atmosphere for women political leaders to network and engage with one another in a welcoming and inclusive environment.

March 27th - Women's Congressional Staff Association Information Fair, Meet Lindsey!

Lindsey has joined the WIG team as the Communications Coordinator.

Lindsey will develop and execute all social, digital, and print media strategies for Women in Government.

Prior to moving to Washington, D.C. six weeks ago, Lindsey was the Membership and Communications Coordinator at the North Tampa Bay Chamber of Commerce (NTBC). The organization was named Chamber of the Year in 2019 due to her marketing efforts and the organization's involvement in economic development in the Tampa Bay region. She was born and raised in Tampa, Florida and earned her bachelor's degree from Florida State University.

Join WIG at The She Suite Summit on March 13, 2020!
For the first time, WIG is engaging with The She-Suite Summit during Women’s History month as a Community Partner. In its fifth year, The She-Suite Summit is a personal brand experience for women to level up in career and life and we look forward to learning more during the conference.

We also look forward to elevating our brand recognition with other leaders and organizations within the She-Suite Community.
