SPEAKER BIOS

Dr. Elizabeth Rausch-Phung
Director, Bureau of Immunization
New York State Department of Health

Dr. Rausch-Phung received her M.D. degree from SUNY Upstate Medical University in Syracuse, where she also completed an internship in Internal Medicine. She completed residency training in Preventive Medicine at the University of Michigan, from which she also received a Master of Public Health degree in Epidemiology. She is board certified in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine.

She joined the NYSDOH in January 2010, and became the medical director of the Bureau of Immunization in September 2010. During her tenure as medical director, Dr. Rausch-Phung supervised the Vaccine-Preventable Disease Surveillance, Perinatal Hepatitis B Prevention Program, Adolescent and Adult Immunization and School Surveillance initiatives, and served as medical advisor to the Vaccines for Children Program.

Kathy Febraio
Executive Director
Pharmacists Society of the State of New York, Inc.

Kathy Febraio serves as executive director of the Pharmacists Society of the State of New York, Inc. She is an entrepreneurial Certified Association Executive (CAE) with diverse industry experiences, skills in change management, advocacy, communications and technology, with a collaborative approach to achieving mission goals, and quick at becoming effective in new and challenging environments.

As ED of PSSNY, Kathy leads the largest pharmacy association in New York State which was established in 1879 to represent the pharmacist profession. Her goal is to fulfill the mission of uniting pharmacists for mutual assistance, encouragement, and improvement in order to maintain the standard of pharmacy practice at a high professional and ethical level.

Dr. Philip Kaplan
New York State Academy of Family Physicians

Dr. Kaplan is a Board Certified family physician who has been in private practice for 43 years. He has a small group of physicians in Manlius, New York, near Syracuse. He served as NYSAFP advocacy committee chair for many years and as president in 2012. Currently he serves as chair of the vaccine policy committee which was formed at his request to bring attention to this area of passion for him.
